

Susan Peatfield

susan@homerenaissancefoundation.org

Profile: Experienced and effective teacher, mentor and advisor to individuals, groups and organizations. Writer and editor of material for training and pastoral use.

- Tutor and co-writer of the Willesden Area Preaching Course for those preparing to be commissioned as lay preachers.
- Mentor for mature /deferred entry students at St Mary's University, Twickenham and St Mellitus College, London.
- Reviewer on Ministerial Development Review programme for clergy and lay licensed and commissioned ministers in the Willesden Area of the Diocese of London.
- Tutor and module assessor and developer for the adult education Course in Christian Studies in the Willesden Area. Main areas of teaching using own material: Learning Strategies, Church History and Ethics.

Education and Qualifications

2005 – 2008: Diocese of London, Willesden Area Training

Reader Training for Licensed Lay Ministry

1995 – 1996 : King's College, University of London

Post-Graduate Diploma in Theology (Distinction)

1988- 1989: Department of Education, University of Cambridge***

Post-Graduate Certificate in Education

1984 -1987: Girton College, University of Cambridge***

BA (Hons) English , MA (Cantab)

*Awarded in maiden name: Susan Jean Charles

Additional Relevant Roles/Experience

- Lead organizer of Heritage events and publications for St Peter's Ealing.
- Member of planning team for LLM Relicensing Service for Diocese of London.
- Writer of material and facilitator of support workshops for mothers of pre-school children.
- Tutor for English AS, A2 and Common Entrance Examinations.
- Writer and editor of a range of in-house publications for churches and organizations in the Willesden Area of the Diocese of London.
- Evidence Checker for DBS (Disclosure and Barring Service) Child Safeguarding Team member for St Peter's.